Mr and Mrs scoring sheet

For the host. One row per round, ten questions a round. Tick for a right answer, cross for a wrong one. Every cross earns a forfeit, so keep count.

Player: _____ Date: _____ Venue: _____

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	SCORE
Round 1: Classic	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	/10
Round 2: How it started	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	/10
Round 3: Life together	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	/10
Round 4: Funny or cheeky	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	/10

Final score: _____ / 40 Forfeits owed: _____

THE VERDICT

36 to 40	Made for each other. Book the band.
26 to 35	Solid. A few gaps to fill before the vows.
16 to 25	Room for improvement. Start taking notes.
0 to 15	Do they actually know each other? Best man speech material.

FORFEIT IDEAS

- Finish your drink, or a soft drink if you're pacing yourself
- Wear the L-plates, sash or veil for the next hour
- Phone your other half and tell them one thing you love about them
- Sing the first verse of your first-dance song
- Let the group choose your next drink
- Do your best impression of your other half

Keep the forfeits proportionate. The aim is a laugh and a great story for the speech, not a groom or bride who misses their own wedding.

BEST ANSWER OF THE NIGHT

Write it down before anyone forgets it. It's going in the speech.